

Walter Vernon Branam, Jr.

January 4, 1922 - February 11, 2004

Walter Vernon BRANAM, Jr. OF Harriman a devoted husband, a loving father, a veteran of the European theater during World War II, a member of the Lion Club since 1948 and a devoted Christian, left today, February 11, 2004, to be with Jesus. Walter is survived by his sons Walter V. Rookie Branam III and wife Sue of Richmond, Virginia, Gene Harold Branam and wife, Pat, of Cincinnati, Ohio, Allen Wayne Branam of Evergreen, Colorado; daughters Karen Rose Coy and husband, Stuart, of Swannanoa, North Carolina, Ginger Duncan of St Louis, Missouri, Karen Sue Robinson of Chesapeake, Virginia and Michelle Lynn Gann and husband, Chad, of Rogersville, Tennessee; grandsons Matthew Adam Branam and Jason Wesley Robinson; granddaughters Sarah Gail Gann, Andrea Rochelle Dewhirst, Kelly Lynn Cartwright, Jennifer Elaine Valentine, Amanda Gay Branam and Heather Rose Branam White; great granddaughters Jessica Lynn Cartwright and Kayla Mackenzie Dewhirst. Visitation with the family will be Friday February 13 from 6 to 8 PM at Kyker Funeral Homes, 430 Morgan Street, Harriman, Tennessee 37748. The funeral will be 1PM Saturday February 14 at Kyker Funeral Home Chapel Harriman with Glenn Moore officiating, with interment to follow at Roane Memorial Gardens. In lieu of flowers, the family requests memorials to Shrine Crippled Children's Hospital and Burn Clinic or to St. Jude Children's Research Hospital at either 1-800-822-6344 by phone, donors@stjude.org by internet or 501 St Jude Place, Memphis, Tennessee 38105 by mail .