May our Lord Jesus Christ himself and God our Father, who loved us and by his grace gave us eternal encouragement and good hope, encourage your hearts and strengthen you in every good deed and word. (2 Thessalonians 2:16-18)

I am asking God to give you (us) strength during this time...My heart hurt so when I received the news of Warren's home going... I had just received another one of his Christmas cards that I so looked forward too. Oh how I will miss him always keeping in touch...It was just not enough time...

How proud I was to have a cousin that did so many great things in his life time and traveled so many far away places...

Family I stand with you at this sad time but I know Warren has traveled to that great land! He is living in those great promises that God has made to us! No more worries of this world and nothing but joy every day! He is free! God's words to us for comfort are:

Brothers and sisters, we do not want you to be uninformed about those who sleep in death, so that you do not grieve like the rest of mankind, who have no hope. 14 For we believe that Jesus died and rose again, and so we believe that God will bring with Jesus those who have fallen asleep in him. 15 According to the Lord's word, we tell you that we who are still alive, who are left until the coming of the Lord, will certainly not precede those who have fallen asleep. 16 For the Lord himself will come down from heaven, with a loud command, with the voice of the archangel and with the trumpet call of God, and the dead in Christ will rise first. 17 After that, we who are still alive and are left will be caught up together with them in the clouds to meet the Lord in the air. And so we will be with the Lord forever. (1 Thessalonians 4:13-17) So it is not over we will see Warren again! Family be strong...it is just bye for now. God Promised. I am here for you, please stay in touch.

Love you! Earnestine (Johnson,Brown,) Sloan

“ We are thinking of you during this difficult time. Although it's difficult today to see beyond the sorrow, May looking back in memory help comfort you tomorrow.

May the peace which comes from the memories of love shared, comfort you now and in the days ahead.

With Love,

Clarence Whitehead & Family
