“ I just learned of Wayne's passing. He was such a good man and athlete. In the early 80's I met Wayne while working for Chip Searcy at a weight lifting facility in Harrman. Wayne agreed to build the interior steam room and I was his cinder block laborer. I remember it being an honor to meet such a talented football player for the Harriman Blue Devils of that era. I also remember Wayne telling me that there were two other athletes that he played with that were given scholarships to UT, Alabama and of course Wayne was offered one for Kentucky. He said UT was interested in him till he injured his knee and he did go and visit Kentucky and came home because he loved the voluteers. I spotted for him and he me when he came by to work out and stay fit. He was a very friendly and kind man. May he rest in peace. God Bless.

“ Wayne was a kind, generous, compassionate man. He is remembered as a fun loving classmate that always remembered the kindness of his HHS teachers.
I sat beside him at the Princess Theatre Elvis Concert, August, 2012...He loved the show opener Patty Waszak.
We pray his family is comforted knowing he was loved and is sweetly remembered.

“ We miss you already my friend. It is with a sad heart that we say goodbye. I prefer to think of the good times we shared, the laughter that frequently came our way. I prefer to think of the many tasks completed over the many years we worked together. I'll always remember your friendship, and you honest, gentle manner. Rest my friend, rest in the safety of Christ's arms.
