

Will Albert Boles

June 19, 1953 - September 17, 2024

Will was a hard-working diesel mechanic that over the years worked hard to support his family. Will was a great father, husband, grandfather and friend. He was the type of person willing to help anyone whether he knew you or not. He loved riding his Harley and made several great friends along his riding journeys. He also enjoyed camping, hunting and fishing with his brother and family.

He was preceded in death by his wife: Peggy Darlene Ingle Boles; parents: James Jackson and Edith Louise Milsaps Boles; brothers, sisters and several nephews.

He leaves behind to cherish his memory his daughter: Tina Stair (Philadelphia); sons and daughter-in-law: James and Rita Boles (Niota), Mr. and Mrs. William Boles (Dayton), and Marvin Boles (Dayton); grandchildren: Megan (Philadelphia), Hailey and Lindsay Boles (Philadelphia), Rochelle Ledford (Tennga, GA), Emily and Scout Rayburn (Niota), Alex and Brittany Boles, Shelby Boles (all of Dayton); stepchildren: Cindy and Dewayne (Etowah) and Clyde Ingle (Maryville)
