“ Penny and family,
I never had the pleasure to meet Mrs. Morton, but the friendship you have given me reflects on how much of a caring and wonderful person your mother was by raising you to be the person you are today. May God Bless all of you

“ Dear Uncle Bob, Beth and Penny, I wanted to offer my empathy and condolences to all of you on the loss of your partner and mother. As is the norm I got a Christmas greeting from Uncle Bob and Aunt Colleen, and for some reason this year I felt the need to write a thank you for being remembered each year. Being remembered with a card and a brief amount of family news doesn't always have the appearance of importance, but it is always much appreciated, and I am so especially thankful that I said so this particular year. Sally called me last night after talking to Mother following Aunt Coreen's call, and though we cannot be there with you, please know that our thoughts and prayers are with you.
