“ Larinda: I was so sorry to hear of Bill's passing. He was such a dear, sweet man and we enjoyed lots of fun years together at work. I'm so sorry I missed the funeral, I was sick. I have had you and your family in my prayers. I don't have your address or I would have sent a card. This is a great picture of Bill.....looks like we were able to pull something sneaky on the rest of the gang.

“ Larinda, I am so sorry for your loss. I had every intention of coming to the visitation, but I became ill while I was at work on Tuesday at had to go home. I have many fond memories of working with Bill and you. I hope you will find piece and comfort during this time. I am sure that you already miss him and the days ahead may seem unclear, but I hope you will take comfort in the fact that Bill no longer has to battle the illness.

“ I was so saddened to learn of Bill's passing. He was a very dear friend of mine and my sister, Gail, back in the late 1970's. We bowled in a Carbine league together and had many great times and grew to be close friends. Although we lost touch after Gail died in 1981, Bill, or Jago as I always called him, remains one of the dearest friends I can remember. His sense of humor, kind countenance, and love for life made him a joy to be around, and I truly cherish the friendship we had. He was a very special human being, and had a positive impact on anyone whose life he touched. I am so very grateful for the way he touched my life.

My thoughts and prayers are with all of his family. May he rest in peace and enjoy the special place God has prepared for him.

“ Bill was a good friend of mine and fellow classmate at Oak Ridge High School. We ran around together some and played a lot of ball together in our younger days. Our relationship continued at Y-12 where we both worked for many years. I also had the pleasure of working with his sister-in-law (Nell) and consider her a good friend also. This world has lost a good man. He will be missed. The Jago family is in our prayers during this sad time.
