“ Bill was a friend of the Family.He was coming up the house when I was just young,as well as us going to his or going camping or just whatever we decided to do. He was a great guy.. I will always remember the good times like the camping trips,four wheeling,and going to his house and him cooking something good.He was a great cook. There was never a dull moment when Bill was around.He was funny and just an all around great guy.He will be missed and I'll always cherish the fun times we had with him.Rest in Peace Bill.

“ Bill will always be remembered.So lucky to have known him and have him as a friend.He was one of the most easy going, kind hearted,and caring man I have known.He always thought of his friends and their feelings more than his own.Lots of treasured memories of him spent with my family as my 2 kids grew up over the years gone by.Lots of fun times and laughter during different adventures together. Like Camping,Off Roding trips, Boating, and Swimming or just hanging out at our house or his.He always loved to cook at get togethers at his house and a Great Cook he was.Especially when he made his Greenbean Casserole.Will be truley missed but holds a special place in many hearts. Rest in Peace my Friend. Debbie Turnbill, Jeff Turnbill, Toshia Turnbill Abner.
