

William Carl Ogle

November 29, 2010

William Carl Ogle of Farragut, 59, died early in the morning of Monday, November 29, 2010, at the University of Tennessee Medical Center in Knoxville, within months of being diagnosed with cancer. Carl was born in Jefferson City on the day Tennessee defeated Kentucky in 1951, and lived to enjoy Tennessee's 26th straight victory over the Wildcats this year. He was a graduate of Jefferson County High School and Tennessee Technological University. He had recently retired after a 35-year career with Philips Consumer Electronics that began in Greeneville, Tennessee, and grew to include many international assignments. Carl was passionate about Tennessee football, rock 'n' roll, and sailing.

He was preceded in death by his father, Bill Ogle of Talbott, TN; brother-in-law, Sandy Webb of Sevierville, TN; and very special "Cuz" Wendell Cannon of Jefferson City, TN. He is survived by his wife, Lynne Ogle of Farragut, TN; mother, Alice Ogle of Talbott, TN; father- and mother-in-law, Gene and Betty Lambert of Russellville, TN; sister Lou Webb of Sevierville, TN; step-children Carrie Tucker of Greeneville, TN; and Gina White and Justin Goode, both of Knoxville, TN; and their families; nieces Charla Foster of Winchester, KY and Shonna McConnell of Cumming, GA and their families; numerous uncles, aunts, and cousins; and many dear friends, all of whom miss Carl and his smile, his wise counsel, and his joy in living. His love for them lives on.

The family will receive friends from 4 to 6 p.m. on Saturday, December 4 at Jefferson United Methodist Church in Jefferson City, TN with a memorial service immediately following. Memorials may be made to St. Jude Children's Research Hospital in Memphis, TN

Tribute Wall

CL

“ To the Carl Ogle Family:

I Was so sorry to hear about the death of Carl. We are praying that God will give you extra strength at this time of sorrow. We love you and please, let us know if we may help you in any way.

Charles & Ann Lanter

Charles Lanter - December 02, 2010 at 12:00 AM