A native of Sweetwater, William “Bill” was born on June 20, 1931, on Peachtree Street, two doors down from the old military school, T.M.I. Bill was the third of four children to Colonel Charles W. and Ruie Scobey Price. Bill is preceded in death by his spouse of 59 years, Jutta “Judy” Witt Price. He is survived by his children, Mark William Price (Rachel) of Nashville, Kim Price Mercer (Dane) of Sweetwater, and Carolyn Price Hayes of Knoxville. He retired from Vestal Manufacturing company in 1998. He was a member of the First United Methodist Church in Sweetwater where he served as a Bible teacher and lay leader. In recent years, he became a member of the First Baptist Church of Kingston making the drive weekly to worship with his friends in Kingston.

Bill enjoyed traveling with Judy to many European destinations. He also spent time gardening and participating in outdoor activities. He spent many years serving on the Sweetwater Tree Board.

Our family extends our deepest gratitude to the caregivers and staff of Wood

“ Mark, Kim and Carolyn,

My deepest condolences on the passing of your Dad. Bill was my Dad Charlie's first cousin and they spent many happy hours together at my Grandparents Lee and Rosalie's farm in Loudon when they were young, alongside brothers Bob and Jim. He was a fine man just like all the Price's of that generation. Jim just passed earlier this summer at 91. I'm sure they are all now reminiscing about those fond memories.
