“ The best and most beautiful things in the world cannot be seen or even touched. They must be felt with the heart. Until we meet again, May God hold you in the palm of His hand. Losing both of you so close together is very hard . But now you can comfort one another. R.I.P. Uncle Ralph and Aunt Wilma

“ Penny, I am thinking of you and praying for your family during this difficult time of loss. Losing a parent is never easy; I know first hand. I miss Mom much but know that she is walking the streets of god in the presence of Almighty God. I know she met your Mom at the pearly gates and told her that you and I are just a mess together! I pray that this bittersweet season will be replaced by sweet memories forever imprinted on your heart. I have an appointment but am trying to rearrange my schedule for this evening and am also dealing with heating issues at my home in this bitter cold. Please know I am with you in spirit, and I promise you that you are surrounded by a host of angels and the large hand of God. Remember that God will send you whatever it is you need for comfort, even in the strangest ways, if you will only have eyes to see. And don't worry if no one believes you . . . it isn't intended for them. :- ) I love you, my dear friend!
