“ I am sorry to hear of your loss. I remember her coming to pick up the grandchildren at Kay's Kiddyland years ago. Losing a parent is never easy, we lost my Dad in 2000. You are all in our thoughts and prayers both now and in the coming days.

“ Charles and I are so sorry for your loss. We built the house next door on Happy Ending Lane and only knew her for a short time but enjoyed our time as neighbors. Your family is in our prayers. I know your loss as I lost my dad in December. Cherish your wonderful memories.

“ *Dear O'Kelley Family,
I was so sorry to read of Mrs. O'Kelley's passing. Her legacy of love and caring was evident last week as we shared those long anxious days at ParkWest. Please know my family and I are holding you fast in our thoughts and prayers.*
