“ A few pics of me and Tyler ❤️ He was my world. I will never forget you son. To those that were nice to him while he was here thank you. To those that included him in their life thank you. That's all he really wanted was to be loved, accepted, and included. To those that didn't- your loss

“ Tyler and I got on eachothers nerves all thru school lol We didnt have many memories together but I am glad I got to talk to him recently and became his friend. I'm glad I got to put a smile on his face and heart! One of the things I liked about him was how intellectual he was. He was very smart and wasnt afraid to hide it! Will always be in my heart! He will be missed by a lot of people!

“ Tyler was the sweetest! We were very close in high school. I became pregnant and he was the only one that didn't put me down or shame me for it . He was there for me always had snacks waiting for me & always made me smile or laugh. I'm gonna miss his kind soul. He was definitely loved & will be very missed! Rip Tyler

“ Tyler could be the sweetest person and always could make me laugh. He loved his half sister and she loved him. I wish he knew how much we loved him, no matter what. A beautiful soul, gone way too soon! 💜 below is a picture of him and his sister, Prissilla, they met for the first time in the hospital. Both ended up at UT in the ICU at the same time. He loved her the minute he saw her & she loved him.
